

The 2018, 25th United States International Music Competition

ABOUT: The United States International Music Competition is organized by the United States International Music Foundation affiliated with the Chinese Music Teachers' Association of Northern California, a non-profit organization. This competition provides young musicians with an opportunity to exhibit their talents and reward their hard work, as well as to encourage them to appreciate music cross-culturally.

ELIGIBILITY: Contestants of all nationalities through age 30. Past First Place winners may not compete in an age group that they have won previously. However, they may elect to compete in another age-appropriate group.

INSTRUMENT CATEGORIES: Piano, Violin, Viola, Cello, Classical Chamber Ensembles, Vocal (solo and ensembles) and Traditional Chinese Instruments (solo and ensembles) categories are held annually. Classical Guitar and Harp are also included in the 2018 competition categories.

AGE GROUPS: Eligibility for each group will be determined by the contestant's age as of June 1, 2018 (application deadline). Each instrument category has different age groups.
